NOTES FOR COMPLETING FORM 1C

1. For (1):

You must give full details of your periods of residence in Hong Kong in your Form 1C, on whatever basis of residency upon which you are claiming to be eligible for admission. If the space provided for is insufficient, you may supply the details on a separate sheet.

If you are claiming to be eligible for admission on the basis of residency in Hong Kong for at least 3 months immediately before the date of your application for a certificate of eligibility for admission or intention to reside in Hong Kong for at least 3 months immediately after your admission, a certified copy of a full set of your passport, must be attached to your Form 1C.

If you have been absent from Hong Kong for any period(s) falling within 3 months before the date of your Form 1C, please submit a written confirmation of the date(s), destination(s) and purpose(s)/reason(s) of your absence and an administrative fee of HK$1,500.00 payable to the Law Society for the review of the travel records in order for it to be satisfied that you have complied with the residency requirements under section 4(1A)(a) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance.

If you intend to reside in Hong Kong for 3 months immediately after admission pursuant to section 4(1A)(b) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance, please provide the Law Society with further information regarding that intention which should be supported by appropriate documentary evidence, such as:

- (i) scheduled / anticipated date of arrival in Hong Kong;
- (ii) immigration / visa status;
- (iii) any offer of or commencement date of employment in Hong Kong; or proof that you have been granted at least 3 months' leave from your employer overseas; and
- (iv) evidence of sufficient means to support yourself over that period if not seeking employment during the 3 months in Hong Kong.

If you have been absent from Hong Kong for any period(s) falling within 3 months immediately after admission, you will be requested then to submit a written confirmation of the date(s), destination(s) and purpose(s)/reason(s) of your absence. An administrative fee of HK$1,500.00 is then payable for the Law Society to review the travel records in order for it to be satisfied that you have complied with the residency requirements under section 4(1A)(b) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance.

Please note that under section 4(3) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance, if you were admitted as a solicitor on the basis of an intention to reside in Hong Kong for at least 3 months immediately after your admission, but you fail to so reside, the Court may, on the application of the Law Society, order that your name be removed from or struck off the roll of solicitors.

If you are claiming to be eligible for admission on the basis of residency in Hong Kong for at least 7 years or presence in Hong Kong for at least 180 days of each of at least 7 years, a certified copy of each of your passport showing the particulars of yourself and your Hong Kong identity card should be attached to your Form 1C.

2. For (2):

A certified copy of your admission certificate/s in all jurisdictions of admission must also be attached to your Form 1C. You may make appropriate amendments in (2) if you have more than one jurisdiction of admission.

3. For (3):

You may file a certified copy of the certificate issued by the Hong Kong Law Society.

The date of passing the examination should be the date on which you sat the examination in which you obtained a pass.

If you were required to pass more than one examination, the date of passing the examinations should be the date on which you sat the last of all the examinations you were required to sit and obtained a pass.

4. The name that appears in your Hong Kong identity card and if not available, your passport will be used on the Roll of Solicitors and you may be asked to make a statutory declaration if the name on other documents does not correspond with that in the Hong Kong identity card or passport.
5. Any attachments to your Form 1C must be certified as follows -

"This is a true copy of the referred to in paragraph of the declaration of made before me this day of"

Commissioner for Oaths / Solicitor"

6. Your declaration must not be witnessed by a solicitor who is an employee or principal in the same firm as you.

(All applicants should file a certified copy of his or her Hong Kong Identity Card with their application for record purposes.)
