C. OVERSEAS LAWYERS QUALIFICATION EXAMINATION INFORMATION

The Rules, procedures and guidelines contained in this Package represent the Law Society's endeavour to respond honourably to its responsibilities under the General Agreement on Trade in Services in order to create a level playing field in the admission of overseas lawyers as solicitors in Hong Kong.

1. Requirements for post-admission experience

If you are admitted in a common law jurisdiction, you must satisfy the Law Society that you have at least two years of post-admission experience in the practice of the law of your jurisdiction of admission (including any period credited in respect of trainee solicitor training or equivalent) in order to be eligible to sit the Examination. The post-admission experience in the practice of the law of your jurisdiction of admission can include any period credited in respect of trainee solicitor training or articulated clerkship or where there is no statutory requirement for you to gain admission through trainee solicitor training or articulated clerkship in your jurisdiction of admission, experience gained during a practical legal training course which is the statutory requirement in lieu of such trainee solicitor training or articulated clerkship. Please see rule 4(2)(b) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules on page 75. This requirement can be satisfied by working as a qualified lawyer in your home jurisdiction, or as a registered foreign lawyer in Hong Kong.

If you are admitted in a non-common law jurisdiction, you must satisfy the Law Society that you have had not less than 5 years of experience in the practice of the law of the jurisdiction of your admission in order to be eligible to sit the Examination. Please see rule 5(1) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules on page 76.

Rule 8 of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules provides that if an applicant was admitted in more than one jurisdiction, he or she may elect any one of those jurisdictions as his or her jurisdiction of admission for the purpose of the Rules. If you are admitted in both common law and non-common law jurisdictions, and you elect the common law jurisdiction as your jurisdiction of admission for the purpose of the Examination, you must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Law Society that you have had at least 2 years' experience in the practice of the law of such common law jurisdiction to be eligible to apply.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have already gained the necessary experience at the time when they submit their applications. No prospective application will be accepted. The cut-off date for calculation of experience is the date of the application to sit or the application for exemption, as the case may be ("the cut-off date").

Please refer to the meaning of "experience in the practice of law" on pages 23-25.

2. Application Form

In order to qualify to sit or be exempt from sitting the Examination, you must complete the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination Application Form (Form A) and submit it to the Department of Standards and Development with all necessary documentation. The fee for having your application processed is HK$6,600.00, which is non-refundable.

Please note that there is a further fee payable on registration to sit the Examination, as provided in the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) (Fees) Rules.

Payment of the requisite fee can be made by cheque or by bank draft payable to "The Law Society of Hong Kong" or by telegraphic transfer to the following account of the Law Society:

beneficiary name	— The Law Society of Hong Kong
beneficiary bank	— The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC)
beneficiary bank address	— 1 Queen's Road Central, Central, Hong Kong
swift code (for overseas transfer)	— HSBCHKHCHKH
account no.	— 583009055001

If you wish to pay by telegraphic transfer, please inform the Law Society in advance and please note that you shall bear all bank charges including the Law Society's bank charges payable for the telegraphic transfer.

The closing date for receipt of application forms (Form A), all supporting documents and information and application fee is FRIDAY, 22 MARCH 2024.

In the event of late submission of application forms, all supporting documents and information after the deadline as specified in this Section, requests from the Law Society for additional documents shall in no event be regarded as an implied extension of the deadline. The purpose of the requests is for the administration of your application, i.e. to validate that you are eligible to sit the Examination notwithstanding that you may no longer be eligible to apply for any exemption(s).

You are hereby reminded that no matter whether the supporting documents are simple in nature or not or whether they are material or not to your application, it should not be justifications for your failure to submit them in time.

Enquiries relating to applications to sit or be exempt from the Examination should be directed to the Assistant Director, Regulation and Guidance at adrg1@hklawsoc.org.hk or telephone no. 2805 9103.

You are strongly advised to submit your application as early as possible and avoid leaving the submission of your application until the closing date.

This Information Package contains Guidelines for applications for exemption from sitting all or part of the Examination (see page 20). Please refer to these Guidelines as to whether you are eligible to seek an exemption from any Head of the Examination. All relevant documentation in support of the application should be provided when your application is submitted on or before the deadline.

You are again strongly advised to submit your application as early as possible so that you will be notified of the outcome of your application in time for planning any revision for the Examination.

5. Certificates

If you meet the criteria for exemption from sitting all Heads of the Examination or are exempted from sitting all Heads, you will be issued a Certificate of Exemption from Sitting the Examination and may proceed with the next stage of the admission procedure. Unless the Law Society otherwise determines, a Certificate of Exemption shall be valid for a period of 12 months from the date of its issue.

If you are eligible to sit the Examination, you will be issued a Certificate under Rule 3(2) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules ("Section 3(2) Certificate") stating the Heads of the Examination which you will be required to sit. If you have applied for exemption from any Head you will be advised in writing whether you have been granted an exemption from that Head. This Certificate is valid for 12 months (unless revoked earlier by the Law Society) from the date of issue.

6. A review of the Law Society's decision under Rule 3(2)

Rule 9 of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules provides that an applicant may ask for his application to be reviewed by the Law Society within one month of receiving notification from the Law Society of its decision and upon payment of the fee of HK$3,000.00 (see the details of the payment methods in paragraph 2 of this Section). You will have one opportunity to have your application reviewed and the time limit specified in the Rules will be strictly followed. A review will be determined on the basis of and only of the information previously provided to the OLQE Eligibility and Exemption Committee. You should therefore ensure that all documents are placed before the OLQE Eligibility and Exemption Committee within the specified time limit in paragraph 2 of this Section.

You may apply to the Court of First Instance of the High Court for review of the Law Society's decision within 3 months of receiving notification from the Law Society.

7. Procedure for registration to sit the 2024 Examination

In order to register to sit the Examination, you must provide the Department of Standards and Development with a letter indicating your intention to sit the Heads of the Examination specified in your Section 3(2) Certificate and the requisite fee as provided in the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) (Fees) Rules. It is advisable for you to pay the registration fee by cheque, bank draft, cashier order or telegraphic transfer (see the details of the payment methods in paragraph 2 of this Section). The Law Society does not accept any cash payment in excess of HK$7,000.00. You will be issued with a Candidate Slip prior to the Examination date advising your Candidate Number, the time and venue for each Head of the Examination.

The closing date for registration to sit the 2024 Examination is Friday, 30 August 2024.

If you are awaiting the outcome of an application for review with respect to exemption from any Head of the Examination at the time of the closing date, you may register upon receipt of the Law Society's determination provided you do so immediately.

8. Supplementary Information Package

A Supplementary Information Package containing –

- the standards, syllabi and reading lists for the different Heads
- Examiners' comments
- past Examination papers
- Guidance Notes on Examination Techniques

will be available on the Law Society website.

9. Past Examination papers

Examination papers for the 1995 to 2022 Examinations are posted on the Law Society website. Examination papers for the 2023 Examination will be posted on the website in due course. Any past Examination paper is for guidance only. It should not be assumed that the format in subsequent Examinations will be identical.

10. Examination standard

The test papers for each Head of the Examination are set at the standard expected of a newly qualified solicitor in Hong Kong who has completed a law degree (or its equivalent), the professional training course (PCLL) and a two-year traineeship prior to admission. An examiner is entitled to expect a newly qualified solicitor to have a good working knowledge and understanding of the subject and to demonstrate the ability to apply that knowledge and understanding correctly, and in a manner appropriate to everyday legal practice. There is no bell curve used for marking of the scripts.

11. Access to the High Court Library and the members' zone of the Law Society website

- (a) Candidates for the 2024 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination have been granted permission to use the High Court Library. Upon arrival at the entrance of the library, candidates will be requested to produce their Section 3(2) Certificates to identify themselves to the library staff.

The address of the High Court Library is 1/F, High Block, Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong.

Enquiries relating to the High Court Library should be directed to its Service Counter at telephone no. (852) 2867 2400.

- (b) Candidates for the 2024 Examination will be given access to the members' zone of the Law Society website at www.hklawsoc.org.hk by the allocation of a password to each of the candidates upon acceptance by the Law Society of their application to sit the 2024 Examination.

With the password, a candidate can then gain access, for a period until the end of the 2024 Examination, to the Law Society Circulars under the section "Circulars" in the members' zone of the Law Society website.

The Law Society is aware that preparatory courses had been provided in the past by the following course providers:

- IP Learning (website address: <http://ip-learning.com>)
- LexOmnibus (website address: <http://www.lexomnibus.com/>; <http://www.olqe.com>)
- Paul Kent Legal Training (website address: <http://www.pskent.com>)

Candidates are advised to contact the preparatory course providers directly to check if they are providing any courses for the forthcoming 2024 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination. The Law Society does not endorse nor accredit any of the courses.

12. Preparation for the Examination

The Examination will test candidates on the relevant law including legislation which has been enacted and is effective by 31 August 2024, excluding those pieces of legislation which have not been enacted and those which have been enacted but are not effective on 31 August 2024.

Preparation for the Examination by candidates should be carried out by way of self study and research in accordance with the syllabi and reading lists set out in the Supplementary Information Package and taking into account the standards established by the Law Society in relation to each Head of the Examination.

Candidates are advised that some subjects of the Examination are more difficult to pass because the requirements of the law in these areas are particularly unique to Hong Kong (for example, Head I Conveyancing and Head II Civil and Criminal Procedure) and a lengthier study period may be required.

Candidates are reminded that practicality should be an important consideration when they answer the questions in the Examination. They are expected to approach the issues from a practical perspective.

The Law Society has an obligation towards members of the public. For that purpose, the Hong Kong Solicitors' Guide to Professional Conduct, Volume 1 ("Guide") has been issued to protect public interests and to maintain the integrity of the profession. The Guide may vary from and may be higher than the standards of the rules of conduct of other jurisdictions. Candidates are required to study the Guide and the Principles in the Guide carefully.

To assist the candidates in preparing for the Examination, the Law Society has produced some guidance notes on examination techniques. The guidance notes will be included in the Supplementary Information Packages which are available on the Law Society website.

13. Withdrawal from sitting the Examination

- (a) After the issuance of a Section 3(2) Certificate but before registration

If you find that you are unable to take the Examination after you have been issued a Section 3(2) Certificate but before you have registered your intention to sit the Examination, you may apply by letter, before the expiry of the Section 3(2) Certificate, for an extension of its validity period to enable you to take the next sitting. The application fee is HK$1,500.00 (see the details of the payment methods in paragraph 2 of this Section).

You will be required to demonstrate good reason as to why you were unable to sit the Examination.

You must have a valid Section 3(2) Certificate in order to sit the Examination. If an extension to the Section 3(2) Certificate is necessary but has not been granted, you will be required to submit a fresh Form A and the prescribed application fee to enable you to take the next sitting of the Examination.

Any extension granted will be subject to the condition that a fresh Certificate of Good Standing from your jurisdiction of admission is submitted to the Law Society prior to registration to sit the Examination.

Candidates may be granted a maximum of 3 extensions of their Section 3(2) Certificates.

(b) After the issuance of a Section 3(2) Certificate and registration

If you find that you are unable to take the Examination after you have registered to do so and have paid the requisite fee, you should, prior to the date of commencement of the Examination, notify in writing the Law Society of your intention to withdraw and specify the reasons for doing so to avoid being deemed to have failed the Examination.

Withdrawal from sitting the Examination refers to withdrawal from sitting all Heads of the Examination as stated on the Section 3(2) Certificate, which you are required to sit. Withdrawal from sitting selective Heads is not allowed.

If you intend to take the next sitting of the Examination, you may apply, in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) above, for an extension of the validity period of the Section 3(2) Certificate, to enable you to take the next sitting.

If you wish to apply for a refund of the registration fee, you should submit the written notification of your intention to withdraw, with reasons, together with an application for a refund of the registration fee not less than 14 days before the commencement date of the Examination (on or before 7 October 2024). The Law Society has the discretion to allow, in appropriate cases, a refund of the registration fee after deduction of an administration fee determined by the Law Society.

14. Absence from the Examination

Any candidate who fails to attend the sitting of any Head of the Examination after registering to sit the Examination will be deemed to have failed that Head.

15. Format of Heads I, II, III and VI test papers for the 2024 Examination

Candidates should note that the test papers for the written Heads I, II, III and VI will be of 3½ hours duration with no specific time allocated to reading and writing.

16. Format of the Accounts and Professional Conduct Head for the 2024 Examination

Candidates should note that the test paper for Head IV on Accounts and Professional Conduct will be divided into two parts: Part A is concerned with accounts issues and comprises one question carrying 25 marks. Part B is concerned with professional conduct issues and comprises 3 questions carrying 25 marks each. Each question in both Parts must be answered.

A pass in both parts must be achieved in one sitting in order to pass the test paper.

Part A on Accounts is 1 hour 30 minutes in duration (from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.) and Part B on Professional Conduct is 2 hours 45 minutes in duration (from 12:45 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.).

Those candidates who are absent from Part A will be disallowed from taking Part B of Head IV.

17. Proficiency in the use of English language

The Council of the Law Society has determined, in principle, that the necessary legislation should be amended to include the achievement of a standard of English at the level of a grade "B" in the Use of English Examination (UEE) or 600 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or IELTS equivalent as a requirement for entry into a trainee solicitor contract in Hong Kong and for overseas lawyers seeking admission as a solicitor in Hong Kong.

Notice is therefore given that a minimum English standard requirement may be required of Examination candidates at some time in the future.

18. Examination materials

As the Examination is one of aptitude rather than memory, the five written Heads of the Examination will be tested on an open book basis. Candidates will be permitted to bring into the Examination any book, document or other written material.

19. Computers / calculators, mobile phones etc.

You may bring and use a silent and non-programmable calculator in the Examination. You are strongly advised not to bring any computer or electronic / communication devices (e.g. tablet or laptop computer, i-watches, smart watches, PDA, mobile phones, pagers, ear phones, ear pieces) into the Examination. If you have brought along any of such devices, you must turn it off (including the alarm function) and put it under your seat in a position clearly visible to the invigilators. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

20. Phototaking, Audio or Video Recording

You are not allowed to take photographs, audio or video recording inside the examination centre at any time. Any photographs or recordings taken must be surrendered to the Chief Invigilator for immediate disposal or deletion. Such incident will be reported to the Law Society for further investigation.

21. Candidates with disabilities

Any candidate who suffers from a disability necessitating special requirements to sit the Examination should make an application in writing addressed to the Director of Standards and Development not less than one month prior to the commencement date of the Examination (on or before 20 September 2024):

- advising the nature of the disability and its effect in relation to ability to sit the Examination;
- including a medical report / certificate in support; and
- specifying the special requirements requested.

The application will be considered by the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination Committee.

A candidate is required to provide reason(s) for any application made after the deadline of 20 September 2024. The Law Society reserves the right not to consider any late applications.

22. Marking Procedures

All Written Heads of the Examination will be marked anonymously. Every script will be marked by a first examiner. A second examiner will mark every script for which the first examiner has given a mark below 52 and a representative selection of other papers intended to convey an impression of the general standard in the Examination. The Chief Examiners will be provided with such scripts for each Written Head to ensure that there is consistency in marking amongst examiners of the same Head, and that there is consistency in marking amongst examiners of different Heads. In particular, the Chief Examiners will:

- (i) mark all scripts which the examiners were unable to agree upon a final mark; and
- (ii) review a representative selection of other scripts to convey an impression of the general standard in the examination.

In relation to subparagraph (ii), where any of the Co-Chief Examiners disagree with the marks of the scripts, the Co-Chief Examiner will return the scripts to the relevant Panel Convenor(s) and Examiners with comments for their reconsideration and re-marking.

23. Examination results

Every effort will be made to release the Examination results as soon as possible following the Examination. A provisional date for the release of the results is 11 March 2025.

Result slips will be sent by e-mail to the e-mail correspondence address provided by the candidates followed by hard copies to be sent by regular post or air mail. Candidates are advised to ensure that they submit up-to-date e-mail and correspondence addresses to ensure timely notification of results.

24. Application for review

A candidate may apply for a review of his script(s) by the Chief Examiners. An application for review shall be made in writing (addressed to the Director of Standards and Development) within 4 weeks from the date of the Law Society's e-mail notifying the candidate the result of the Examination, together with:

- (i) a written submission giving the brief grounds for review consisting of a document of no more than one A4 size page with 1-inch margins all around the page, double-spaced and Times New Roman 14-point font; and
- (ii) a fee of HK$3,000.00 per Head by cheque or by bank draft made out to "The Law Society of Hong Kong".

A candidate who wishes to apply for a review of his examination result should apply for copies of the examination question books, his scripts and the records of examiners' comment in respect of the Examination after the release of the Examination results but prior to making an application for review and written submission giving the grounds for review to ensure all grounds for review are included in the application and/or submission and that they are submitted within the deadline of 4 weeks from the date of notification of examination result specified in this paragraph.

Copies of examination question books, the candidate's scripts and the records of examiners' comment will be provided to the candidate subject to the payment of photocopying charges specified in paragraph 25.

Any written submission consisting of more than one A4 size page (1-inch margins all around the page), double-spaced and Times New Roman 14-point font will not be considered and the fee of HK$3,000.00 will not be refunded. A candidate may submit another written submission which complies with the requirements in subparagraph (i) provided the amended submission is made within the deadline of 4 weeks from the date of notification of examination result specified in this paragraph.

No additional grounds for review or particulars of grounds already submitted or amended submission can be made by the candidate after the deadline except with the consent of the Chief Examiners.

The review process includes:

- (a) a check of the candidates' script(s) to ensure that all the questions answered have been marked and the marks have been recorded accurately and computed correctly; and
- (b) a review by the Chief Examiners of the marking procedure of the script(s).

In considering whether to apply for a review, candidates are reminded a review is not a re-marking of the script(s) and that in accordance with paragraph 22 above, all fail scripts had been marked twice by Examiners before the results were released.

If the review is successful for a Head, the review fee for the particular Head will be refunded.

25. Copies of scripts, records of examiners' comments, videotapes, question books

Regardless of whether a candidate is applying for a review pursuant to paragraph 24, a candidate may request for copies of the examination question books, his scripts and the records of examiners' comments on his scripts in respect of the written Heads of the Examination, and copies of the examination question books, videotape and records of examiners' comment in respect of the oral examination in Head V of the Examination after the release of the Examination results, subject to the payment of the copying charges at HK$300.00 per script, HK$50.00 per each Head of the records of examiners' comment, HK$1.00 per page per examination question book, and charges for dubbing the videotape at HK$300.00 per tape. The scripts, videotapes and the records of examiners' comments will be destroyed one year after the date of the release of the Examination results. A candidate may therefore only request for copies of the scripts, videotapes, and the records of examiners' comments with respect to the latest Examination.

26. Applications to resit the Examination

Candidates who fail the 2024 Examination will, subject to the provisions of the Examination Procedures, be able to resit the subjects for which they did not receive a pass in addition to any subject(s) required in accordance with the then applicable rules and guidelines at the next normal sitting which will be one year later.

To resit the Examination, candidates are required to submit:

- (i) a fresh Form A;
- (ii) original Certificate(s) of Good Standing from their jurisdiction(s) of admission, the date of their issue is not more than 4 months old when such Certificate(s) of Good Standing or the fresh Form A is received by the Law Society (whichever date of receipt is later);
- (iii) (if you have changed your passport or your Hong Kong identity card after you last submitted a certified copy of it to the Law Society) a certified copy of your new passport or your new Hong Kong identity card;
- (iv) (if your name appears in different versions in the supporting document(s) submitted by you in support of your application to resit), a statutory declaration confirming that the supporting documents refer to and relate to you. A sample statutory declaration is set out on page 48 (see paragraph J on page 32 for the meaning of different versions of name); and

F. GUIDELINES FOR EXEMPTION FROM SITTING ALL OR PARTS OF THE OVERSEAS LAWYERS QUALIFICATION EXAMINATION

These Guidelines set out the current general principles that will be followed by the Law Society when considering applications to be exempt from sitting all or part of the Examination, and will be reviewed from time to time.

You are advised to read these Guidelines carefully before you submit your application. It is the responsibility of the applicants to comply with these Guidelines and the deadlines in Section E. Reasons will not be given to the applicants whose applications fail to comply with the guidelines and/or deadlines.

Applicants must satisfy a high standard in order to be granted exemption. If an applicant fails a particular Head, such failure will be taken into account by the Law Society in the event that the applicant subsequently applies for an exemption from sitting that particular Head.

Applicants admitted to practise in common law jurisdictions are not required to sit Head V upon proof to the satisfaction of the Law Society that they have had at least 2 years' experience in the practice of law of such common law jurisdictions.

(a) with 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law

Only those applicants who are able to demonstrate to the Law Society's satisfaction that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law of the common law jurisdictions are eligible to apply for exemption or be exempted from sitting any of the five written Heads of the Examination.

(b) with less than 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who do not satisfy the 5 year experience requirement will be required to sit the five written Heads of the Examination:

Head I	Conveyancing
Head II	Civil and Criminal Procedure
Head III	Commercial and Company Law
Head IV	Accounts and Professional Conduct
Head VI	Hong Kong Constitutional Law and are NOT eligible to apply for exemption from any Head.

Applicants admitted to practise in non-common law jurisdictions

(a) with 5 or more years of experience in the practice of the law of their jurisdiction of admission

Applicants are required to sit and pass the five written Heads of the Examination and the Oral Head V, Principles of Common Law, unless otherwise exempted from any of those Heads in accordance with these Guidelines.

(b) with less than 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants should refer to rule 5(2) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules.

1. Applicants Admitted in Common Law Jurisdictions

(a) Category A - applicants admitted to practise as Solicitors, Barristers and Solicitors, Advocates or Attorneys and who have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who are able to satisfy the Law Society that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law (see Notes below):

- are required to sit Head I (Conveyancing), unless otherwise exempted in accordance with the guideline for exemption under Category C or E.
- are required to sit Head VI (Hong Kong Constitutional Law), unless otherwise exempted in accordance with the guideline for exemption under Category D.
- are exempt from sitting Head II (Civil and Criminal Procedure) under rule 4(1) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules.
- are eligible to apply for exemption from sitting Heads III (Commercial and Company Law) and IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct) of the Examination. Exemption from these Heads may be granted if they are able to demonstrate, to the Law Society's satisfaction, experience, knowledge and/or training which is relevant to these Heads.
- In respect of an application for exemption from sitting Head III (Commercial and Company Law), applicants are referred to paragraph K on pages 32-33 of this Information Package for details of the relevant verification requirements. An Appendix of a non-exhaustive list of practices in Commercial and Company Law for reference is on page 26 of this Information Package. Applicants are required to provide all the details prescribed by paragraph K on pages 32-33 in tabular format and such details must be verified by the employers and submitted to the Law Society for its consideration. The description of the clients can be a generic description without breaching clients' privacy and confidentiality. Failure to do so may result in the application being rejected.

An example of how the information can be set out in tabular format is given below:

Types of transactions (including Applicant's role, responsibilities and involvement)

Types of Clients
Work undertaken by the Applicant / Experience gained by the Applicant
Period of employment

- Demonstration of completion of courses in the subjects covered by the relevant Heads on its own will not be sufficient for the purpose of exemption.
- Exemption from sitting Head IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct) will only be granted where the applicants provide sufficient evidence to demonstrate that they have the experience, knowledge and/or training in relation to the issues covered by this Head.

Tips for presenting prescribed details in tabular format in support of an application for exemption from sitting Head III (Commercial and Company Law)

1. The aim of preparing the tables is to help the Law Society assess the width and depth of knowledge and experience in commercial and company law gained by an applicant in the 10 years immediately preceding the cut-off date.
2. The transactions/cases handled by an applicant and selected to be included in the verification letter should be presented in tabular format. The role taken by the applicant and the specific experience gained by the applicant in each transaction/case should be highlighted.
3. Applicants should avoid using identical or repetitive wordings in the descriptions of the work undertaken and the experience gained in different transactions/cases. If repetitive wordings cannot be avoided due to the similar nature of work undertaken in different transactions/cases, the applicants should provide an explanation as to why all works are in similar nature.
4. The number of transactions/cases in the tables should be proportionate to the years of experience gained by the applicant in commercial and company law. If they are not, applicants should provide an explanation why this is not so.

Notes:

(1) For the purpose of these Guidelines, the Law Society will regard the following as comprising "experience in the practice of law":

- (i) the professional stage of legal education (post-academic and pre-admission), including but not limited to service as a trainee solicitor or articled clerk or a course of practical legal training in lieu of traineeship which satisfies the admission criteria in the applicant's jurisdiction of admission gained in the 10 year period immediately preceding the cut-off date.

Remarks:

- any training period in excess of the statutory training period required for admission is not recognised;
- if an applicant's statutory training period has been reduced by the regulatory authority as a result of pre-training experience recognised by such regulatory authority as satisfying the admission criteria in the applicant's jurisdiction of admission, the applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Law Society that such pre-training experience is comparable to the training required for admission and/or is relevant experience in the practice of law and that documentary evidence in addition to the recognition of such pre-training experience by the regulatory authority of the applicant's jurisdiction of admission must be provided;
- if an applicant has been admitted in more than one jurisdiction and completed articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training or a course of practical legal training in more than one jurisdiction, only the statutory period of articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training or a course of practical legal training required for admission in his jurisdiction of admission as elected by him under rule 8 of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules will count. No double counting of the period of articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training or a course of practical legal training will be recognised; and
- for example, if there is no statutory requirement for an applicant to complete any trainee solicitor training or the equivalent training in order to be admitted in a jurisdiction, pre-admission experience in that jurisdiction is not recognised.

- (ii) post-admission experience which was:

- (aa) gained in the 10 year period immediately preceding the cut-off date;

- (bb) in the practice of law in the capacity of a practitioner of the law of the jurisdiction in which the applicant was admitted and which the applicant relies on in the application; and
- (cc) properly authorised to do so according to the rules and regulations of the place in which the applicant carried on his practice of law. For instance,
  - If an applicant practises in the PRC based on his non-PRC legal qualification, he has to provide a certified copy of his PRC practising licence or written confirmation issued by the PRC Justice Bureau or other proper authority to verify that he was properly authorised to practise in the PRC as a qualified legal practitioner based on his non-PRC legal qualification.
  - If an applicant practises in Japan based on his non-Japanese legal qualification, he has to provide a certified copy of certificate or written confirmation issued by the Japan Federation of Bar Associations or other proper authority to verify that he was properly authorised to practise in Japan as a qualified legal practitioner based on his non-Japanese legal qualification.

The examples are non-exhaustive.

Remarks:

- In the context of law firms in Hong Kong (whether Hong Kong firms or foreign firms), only experience gained as a registered foreign lawyer will count. Other experience gained by overseas qualified lawyers working in law firms in Hong Kong will not count.
- In order for the in-house experience to be recognised as experience in the practice of law, such experience must be comparable to that of a private practitioner in the practice of the law. The application will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- The academic qualifications such as LLM cannot be recognised as "experience in the practice of law".
- Part-time experience may not be recognised as "experience in the practice of law".

- Maternity leave taken in respect of employment in Hong Kong in excess of the statutory 14-week maternity leave for each child under the Employment Ordinance Cap. 57 cannot be recognised.
- (2) In order to meet the 5 year experience requirement for exemption from Heads II, III and IV, applicants will have to demonstrate that they have already gained the necessary experience at the cut-off date. Prospective applications will not be accepted.

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category A

To be eligible for exemption from Heads III and IV, applicants must satisfy the Law Society that they have:

- (a) at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law; and
- (b) experience, knowledge and/or training which is relevant to Heads III (Commercial and Company Law) and IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct).

Applicants are required to provide all pertinent details of the nature of their practice and experience. Failure to do so may result in the applications being rejected.

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek an exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The following information must also be provided in support of an application for exemption:

- (1) verification of their service as articled clerks or trainee solicitors or a course of practical legal training in their home jurisdiction, in the form of a letter issued by the firm which employed them;
- (2) verification of any post-academic and pre-admission professional courses undertaken in their home jurisdiction, in the form of a letter or certificate from the institution offering the course;
- (3) verification of periods of post-admission experience in the practice of law, in the form of letter/s issued by the firm/s which have employed them, setting out the precise periods of employment and areas of experience; and
- (4) any other relevant information.

(b) Category B - Applicants admitted to practise as Barristers and who have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who are able to demonstrate to the Law Society's satisfaction that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law are exempt from sitting Head II under rule 4(1) of the Rules.

Applications by Barristers for exemption from any other Head on the basis of their experience, knowledge and/or training will be considered by the OLQE Eligibility and Exemption Committee on a case-by-case basis.

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category B

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek an exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The information contained in the letter should be supported by original letters of reference addressed to the Law Society from practising lawyers or members of their professional body of at least 5 years' standing, regarding the applicant's experience and any other relevant information. The Law Society may require further information to be provided.

(c) Category C - Exemption from Head I (Conveyancing)

Exemption from Head I may be granted where applicants can demonstrate to the Law Society that they have substantial experience in the law and practice of conveyancing in Hong Kong.

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category C

Applicants are required to provide full details of the nature and extent of their conveyancing experience in Hong Kong, supported by a letter of reference from the principal(s) of the firm(s) where they have gained that experience.

(d) Category D - Exemption from Head VI (Hong Kong Constitutional Law)

Exemption from Head VI may be granted if applicants completed a course on Hong Kong Constitutional Law provided by the University of Hong Kong, City University of Hong Kong or The Chinese University of Hong Kong. If the course on Hong Kong Constitutional Law was provided by other institutions, applicants are required to provide the syllabus and academic transcript for consideration by the OLQE Eligibility and Exemption Committee and any such application will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The completion of a course on the Constitutional Law of an overseas jurisdiction is not sufficient for exemption purpose.

(e) Category E - Discretionary exemption in exceptional circumstances

The Council may in its absolute discretion grant to an applicant from a common law jurisdiction exemption from all or any part of the Examination which the applicant might otherwise be required to sit, if the Council is satisfied that:

- (i) the applicant possesses an expertise not commonly available in Hong Kong; and
- (ii) there will be a benefit to Hong Kong and/or the legal profession in Hong Kong in granting such an exemption.

This exemption will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

No exemptions have been granted under this Category since it was introduced in 1997.

Applicants should provide full details of the extent of their experience and testimonials in support of their claims as to (i) and (ii) above from senior members of their profession.

2. Applicants Admitted in Non-Common Law Jurisdictions

Applicants whose jurisdiction of admission is a non-common law jurisdiction and who have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of the law of their jurisdiction of admission may apply for exemption from any Head of the Examination, which will be considered by the OLQE Eligibility and Exemption Committee on a case-by-case basis.

Exemption may be granted if applicants are able to demonstrate, to the Law Society's satisfaction, experience, knowledge and/or training which is relevant to those Heads.

Demonstration of completion of courses in the subjects covered by the relevant Heads on its own will not be sufficient for the purposes of exemption.

Exemption from sitting Head IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct) will only be granted where the applicants provide sufficient evidence to demonstrate that they have the experience, knowledge and/or training in relation to the issues covered by this Head.

Procedure for making an application for exemption

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek a discretionary exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The information contained in the letter should be supported by original letters of reference addressed to the Law Society from practising lawyers or members of their professional body of at least 5 years' standing, regarding the applicant's experience and any other relevant information. The Law Society may require further information to be provided.

(see Section F on pages 21-22 for the requirements to present information in tabular format in respect of any application for exemption from sitting Head III (Commercial and Company Law))

In the case of a law firm, the verification letter should be issued by a partner of the firm on the firm's letterhead. It is not necessary to provide several verification letters from various partners in the same firm. In the case of a company, the verification letter should be issued by an officer at managerial level in the company (such as your supervisor there) on the company's letterhead.

In the case of a law firm or company which is no longer in existence, you may provide written confirmation by your supervising principal confirming the non existence of the law firm or company and verifying your experience based on his or her personal capacity, information and knowledge.

If you were employed by more than one employer during any period of time in the 10 years immediately preceding the cut-off date (including any secondment arrangement) and you wish to rely on your experience in the practice of law gained during such period of time in support of your application, you must provide the verification letter from those who were your employers during such period of time in compliance with the requirements set out in this Note K. In addition, if there is or are any overlapping period(s) of employment, all employers involved in the overlapping employment must provide verification letters with details as to work arrangements and the number of hours per week you worked for each employer, and how you worked for each employer (including whether or not you were required to be physically present in the relevant employer's office to attend work). As stated in Question 23 of Form A, full time means at least 35 working hours per week.

- L. Applicants who are sole practitioners should provide verification of your professional practice and experience by third parties including fellow practitioners and clients. A statutory declaration by you as to your professional practice and experience will not suffice.

- M. Applicants must provide certified English translation of all documents submitted in support of their application which are not in English with documentary proof of the qualifications of the translators.

A translator must prepare the English translation of the documents.

The following certification statement is acceptable:

"I, the undersigned, do hereby state that I am well versed in both English and _____ languages and I certify that the English translation of the attached document is the true and correct English translation".

The following certification statements are ACCEPTABLE:

- (a) "I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that this is a true and complete copy of the original";

The following certification statement is NOT ACCEPTABLE because it is not clear whether the certified copy is a true copy of the original or only a true copy of the certified copy:-

The Law Society reserves the right to call for an original certificate where it deems this to be necessary.

Not until the expiration of those 6 weeks can application be made for the issue of a practising certificate. However, application in Form 1C for admission may be made contemporaneously with the notice of intention to apply for a practising certificate.

3. Certificate of Eligibility for Admission

After your documents have been checked, a Form 3 (Certificate of Eligibility for Admission as a Solicitor) will be issued to you.

You must serve a sealed copy of the motion paper and a certified copy of the Form 3 on the Law Society and the Secretary for Justice at the same time as the papers are filed at the Court: rule 4(3) of the Admission and Registration Rules at page 86.

The copy delivered to the Law Society must be accompanied by the name of the person who will move your admission and a statement as to whether that person is a barrister or solicitor. If the name of the person moving your admission changes, you should notify the Law Society immediately by email to regist@hklawsoc.org.hk.

The Secretary for Justice will write to you and advise whether he has any objection to your admission. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Court and the Law Society.

The Law Society will not issue you a letter if your papers are in order.

If your papers are not in order, you will be advised by the Law Society or the Secretary for Justice of the further steps which you need to take.
