

ADMISSION AS A SOLICITOR: TRAINEE SOLICITORS

This information package applies from 16 November 2023.

This package sets out the procedure for a trainee solicitor to apply for admission as a solicitor in Hong Kong after completion of a trainee solicitor contract. Please read this package carefully before preparing your documents and before seeking advice from the Society.

1. Legislation

The relevant provisions are sections 3 & 4 of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance and rules 3, 4 & 5 of the Admission and Registration Rules and the Trainee Solicitors Rules. The legislation is posted on the Law Society website at www.hklawsoc.org.hk.

2. Procedure

There are three steps you must take to be admitted in Hong Kong.

Step 1: APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION (Form 2)

Within 12 months after the completion of your most recent trainee solicitor contract, you must apply to the Society for a certificate of eligibility for admission by providing to the Society (marked to the attention of the "Registration Section") -

- (a) a completed Form 4 (application for a certificate of eligibility for admission) for each principal who has employed you - see attached Notes for completing Form 4;
- (b) a completed Statement of Compliance with CPD / RME Requirements and as required, a copy of your CPD / RME training record kept in accordance with rule 6(1) of the Continuing Professional Development Rules; and
- (c) a cheque for $1,500.00 payable to "The Law Society of Hong Kong".

Step 2: CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

After your documents have been checked, a Form 2 (certificate of eligibility for admission) will be issued to you.

It will take at least 4 weeks to issue the Form 2 depending on the seasonal workload of the Society. Do not telephone the Society until the end of this period.

Step 3: MOTION PAPERS

When you have received the Form 2 from the Society, you must prepare and file a motion paper with the High Court of First Instance within 2 months of the date of the Form 2: rule 4(1A).

If you fail to do so, you will have to apply for another Form 2 (see Step 1) and a further application fee is payable. The Society has no discretion to extend this time limit.

A sample motion paper is attached. The motion paper must be accompanied by –

- (a) the original Form 2 certificate issued by the Society; and
- (b) a cheque for $1,135.00 payable to "The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region" for the application fee.

It is a requirement of rule 4(2) of the Admission and Registration Rules that the original Form 2 certificate accompany your motion paper. Do not file your motion paper before you obtain the Form 2 from the Society.

You must serve a sealed copy of the motion paper and a certified copy of the Form 2 on the Society and the Secretary for Justice at the same time as the papers are filed at the Court: rule 4(3).

The copy delivered to the Society must be accompanied by the name of the person who will move your admission and whether that person is a barrister or solicitor. If the name of the person moving your admission changes, you should notify the Society immediately by email to regist@hklawsoc.org.hk.

The Secretary for Justice will write to you and advise whether there is any objection to your admission. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Court and the Society. The Society will not issue any letter if your papers are in order.

If your papers are not in order, you will be advised by the Society or the Secretary for Justice of the further steps which you need to take.

A further fee of $360.00 for entering your name on the roll is payable to the High Court after your admission. A demand note for the fee will be issued to you by the Court.

3. General notes

You must read the notes at the bottom of the attached forms carefully. Any amendments to the attached forms must be initialled by the declarants and the witness. If a document is not in a form acceptable to the Society it will be returned to you for amendment and re-execution. You will not be permitted to bring substitute pages to the Society and insert them in the original document in place of the incorrect pages.

Please also refer to the specimen forms prepared which are attached at the back of this package.

4. Continuing Professional Development ("CPD")

You are required to accumulate 30 CPD points by the end of your period of employment as a trainee solicitor and on a pro-rata basis in accordance with Table A or Table A1 in the CPD Information Package. A CPD practice year commences on 1 November in a year and ends on 31 October the following year. You are required to accumulate 15 CPD points for a 12-month period of employment as a trainee solicitor in a CPD practice year. If the period of your trainee solicitor contract in a CPD practice year does not cover the entire CPD practice year, your CPD requirement in that CPD practice year will be determined on a pro-rata basis in accordance with Table A or Table A1 in the CPD Information Package.

The Society's policies, procedures and guidelines concerning the CPD Scheme are set out in the CPD Information Package which is posted on the Law Society website at www.hklawsoc.org.hk.

5. Risk Management Education ("RME")

With effect from 1 November 2008, the application of the Legal Practitioners (Risk Management Education) Rules ("Rules") has been extended to trainee solicitors whose first trainee solicitor contract commences on or after 1 November 2008.

For trainee solicitors whose first trainee solicitor contract commences on or after 1 November 2008

If your first trainee solicitor contract commences on or after 1 November 2008, you will be subject to the RME obligations as follows:

- (a) During the first practice year in which the Rules apply to you, you shall complete the trainee solicitor's core courses consisting of two half-day modules.
- (b) During the second practice year in which the Rules apply to you, you shall complete the compulsory first electives for trainee solicitors consisting of two half-day modules.

The compliance of RME obligations including the completion of the trainee solicitor's core courses and the compulsory first electives for trainee solicitors is a condition of admission for trainee solicitors.

An RME practice year commences on 1 November in a year and ends on 31 October the following year. The Rules apply to you if you are employed under a valid trainee solicitor contract for 100 days or more in an RME practice year. Your first practice year for the purposes of the Rules will be the first practice year in which the Rules first apply to you and is not an exempted practice year. Your second practice year is the practice year immediately succeeding the first practice year and is not an exempted practice year. If the period of your employment as a trainee solicitor is less than 100 days in an RME practice year, that practice year will be an exempted practice year and as a result, it is unnecessary for you to complete any RME courses in that practice year.

There have been instances of misinterpretation of the RME requirement whereby the trainee solicitors calculate the 12-month period for the first practice year in which they have to complete the core courses from the date of commencement of their trainee solicitor contracts, instead of 1 November. Examples on how to calculate the relevant first and second practice years are set out in the section "Frequently Asked Questions" of the RME Information Package.

On the basis that you have completed the trainee solicitor's core courses and the compulsory first electives, you shall be exempted from completion of the non-principal's core courses during the practice year when you start working as a non-principal in a Hong Kong firm after admission as a Hong Kong solicitor. You nevertheless remain subject to the annual RME elective obligations.

For trainee solicitors whose first trainee solicitor contract commences before 1 November 2008

The Rules do not apply to trainee solicitors whose first trainee solicitor contract commences before 1 November 2008. If you fall within this category, you are not subject to any RME obligations as trainee solicitor.

When you work as a non-principal in a Hong Kong firm after admission as a Hong Kong solicitor, you will be subject to the Rules for the first time:

- (a) During the first practice year that the Rules apply to you, you have to complete the non-principal's core courses which consist of two half-day modules;
- (b) During every subsequent practice year, you will complete at least 3 hours of elective courses within each subsequent practice year or failing which, at least 6 hours of elective courses within the immediately succeeding practice year.

The RME Information Package is posted on the Society's website at www.hklawsoc.org.hk.

6. *Notice of Intention to Apply for a Practising Certificate

For first time application for a practising certificate, a Notice of Intention to apply for a practising certificate must be submitted not less than 6 weeks before the application for a practising certificate in accordance with the Practising Certificate (Special Conditions) Rules. A Notice of Intention to apply for a Practising Certificate is enclosed.

PRACTISING CERTIFICATE
(SPECIAL CONDITION) RULES

1. The Practising Certificate (Special Conditions) Rules (“Rules”) will come into operation on 1 February 2003.
2. The conditions subject to which a practising certificate may be issued are set out in Schedule 1 to the Rules. They include the following:
  - (a) The solicitor shall complete a period of practice (not exceeding 24 months) as specified by the Council under the supervision of a solicitor holding an unconditional practising certificate.
  - (b) The solicitor may only practise in an employment that has been approved by the Council.
  - (c) The solicitor may only practise in a partnership that has been approved by the Council.
  - (d) The solicitor may only practise on his own account with the approval of the Council.
  - (e) The solicitor shall not sign cheques on a client account.
  - (f) The solicitor shall accumulate such CPD accreditation points or undertake and complete one or more courses of the Continuing Professional Development Scheme as specified by the Council.
  - (g) The solicitor shall undertake additional academic or training courses or examinations specified by the Council.

3. The above conditions may be imposed on a practising certificate in accordance with the Rules if:
  - (a) the solicitor is applying for the issue of a practising certificate for the first time;
  - (b) the solicitor has been censured or ordered to pay a penalty or costs by the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal since he was last issued a practising certificate;
  - (c) the solicitor has failed or refused to give to the Society a sufficient and satisfactory explanation in respect of any matter relating to his conduct when invited to do so since he was last issued a practising certificate and has been notified in writing by the Society that he has so failed or refused;
  - (d) the solicitor has been suspended from practice since he was last issued a practising certificate and the period of his suspension has expired;
  - (e) the solicitor has had his name removed from or struck off the roll of solicitors since he was last issued a practising certificate and his name has been restored to the roll of solicitors;
  - (f) the solicitor has become bankrupt since he was last issued a practising certificate and has been discharged;
  - (g) the solicitor has had a monetary judgment (not being a judgment excepted in the Rules) given against him since he was last issued a practising certificate;

  - (i) the solicitor was a principal in or a consultant of a firm at the time of an intervention of the firm by the Society during the preceding 18 months.
4. If a solicitor comes within any of the situations set out in paragraph 3 above, he shall not less than 6 weeks before he applies for a practising certificate give to the Society written notice of his intention to so apply in a specified form, unless the Society or Chief Judge otherwise orders.
5. Accordingly, under the Rules, newly qualified solicitors applying for a practising certificate for the first time will be required to give written notice of intention to apply for a practising certificate not less than 6 weeks before they apply for a practising certificate.

6. There has been a concession given to newly qualified solicitors to backdate their first practising certificate to the date of admission provided they apply within one month of admission. This concession will cease when the Rules come into effect on 1 February 2003.
7. Where a practising certificate has already been issued to a solicitor, the Society may add certain conditions to it, as set out in the Rules, if:
  - (a) the situation in paragraph 3(b),(c),(d),(g) or (i) above arises;
  - (b) the solicitor has entered into a voluntary arrangement with his creditors; or
  - (c) the solicitor has been charged with or convicted of an offence involving dishonesty or deception or an offence which in the opinion of the Council has compromised or impaired or is likely to compromise or impair the reputation of the profession.
8. Consequential amendments have been made to the Practising Certificate (Solicitors) Rules to include, in the form of application for a practising certificate, a requirement to indicate whether the applicant falls within any of the situations in paragraph 3 above and whether prior notice has been given to the Society.
