

Beryl WU, Member of 2023 Law Week Organising Committee of The Law Society of Hong Kong

Beryl Wu is a Senior Associate in Baker & McKenzie's Hong Kong office, and a member of the firm's Dispute Resolution practice group. She is an Organizing Committee member of the Law Week 2023 of The Law Society of Hong Kong.

Beryl focuses her practice on commercial litigation, international commercial arbitration, and cross-border corporate insolvency matters. She has a proven track record of representing a diverse range of clients, including financial institutions, state-owned entities and multinational corporations and high net worth individuals. Her expertise extends to Hong Kong court litigations and Hong Kong seated arbitration proceedings (including HKIAC and ICC arbitration), including urgent injunction applications, enforcement of arbitral awards, asset recovery and liquidation proceedings.

Beryl was the first Hong Kong lawyer in private sector seconded to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law ("Permanent Bureau of the HCCH") in the Netherlands by the Department of Justice of the Hong Kong SAR. In 2022, she was a member of the Transnational Litigation team in the Permanent Bureau of the HCCH, and was involved in the works in relation to the HCCH jurisdiction project, 2019 Judgments Convention, 2005 Choice of Court Convention, and 1965 Service Convention.

Beryl holds degrees in Social Policy and Administration, Juris Doctor, Postgraduate Certificate in Laws, and Master of Laws in Arbitration and Dispute Resolution.
