

BA Shusong
Managing Director, Chief China Economist, HKEX; Chief Economist, The China Banking Association

Professor Ba Shusong is a Managing Director and the Chief China Economist of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited (HKEX). Based in Hong Kong, Professor Ba leads a team focused on research relating to Mainland China's economic and financial policy developments. His team is involved in a number of China-related strategic projects that seek to actively promote interaction and cooperation between HKEX and the Mainland.

In addition to his position at HKEX, Professor Ba assumes important roles in a number of academic and professional institutions. He is the Chief Economist of the China Banking Association (CBA), a Senior Visiting Scholar of the Columbia University, a committee member of the Professional Committee of China's 13th Five-Year Plan for National Development and Planning, a member of the Mainland Opportunities Committee of the Financial Services Development Council (FSDC) of Hong Kong, an Executive Director of the HSBC Financial Research Institute at Peking University, a Vice President of the China Society of Macroeconomics and Adjunct Professor of the Business School of the University of Hong Kong. Prof. Ba had assumed the role of key speaker for group training of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party. He was the Chinese scholar with his papers having the highest rate of quotation in economics literature in Chinese during 2006 to 2015 ("Chinese Social Sciences Assessment 2017" (《中國社會科學評價》2017年)), and was nominated into the "2022 Ranking of Academic Activities of Professors of Chinese Business Schools (Finance)" (2022年中國商學院教授學術活躍度榜(金融財務專業)).

Professor Ba has contributed to the publication of several Chinese-English bilingual books – including Global Commodities Market: From Spot to Futures (the simplified Chinese version published in Mainland China was awarded 2020 "Yicai – J.P. Morgan Financial Books of the year" (2020 "第一財經·摩根大通" 年度金融書籍) and 21st Century Business Herald & 21st Century

Economic Research Institute — “21st Century Book of the Year (2020)” (21 世紀經濟報導、21 世紀經濟研究院 —— “21 世紀年度好書 (2020)”); Mutual Market Connectivity and Hong Kong Market Innovations for New-Economy Financing (awarded 2019 Yicai – J.P. Morgan Financial Books of the Year (2019 年 “第一財經 - 摩根大通” 年度書籍), 2019 Top Ten Books of The Commercial Press (H.K.) Ltd. (香港商務印書館 2019 年度十大好書)); Bond Connect Scheme — New Strategy for Internationalisation of China’s Bond Market; and New Progress in RMB Internationalisation — Innovations in HKEX’s Offshore Financial Products.