

Mr. Lawson Chen
Vice-President, Guangdong Lawyers Association

Mr. Lawson Chen, is currently appointed as the vice president of Guangdong Lawyers Association, leads the development of foreign-related legal services of Guangdong Province. He facilitated the establishment of the He promoted the establishment of domestic and foreign legal professional cooperation and exchange platforms. He makes significant contributions to relevant regulations and service guidelines on foreign-related legal services in Guangdong Province.

Mr. Chen has a close connection with legal professionals in Hong Kong, Singapore, Kazakhstan, the United Kingdom and other regions and countries. He has been invited to participate in various large international legal forums and seminars. As the legal representative of Institute of Qianhai International Cooperation Legal Studies, Mr. Chen actively promotes legal researches and provides professional opinions on “the Belt and Road” and Qianhai development.