

Mr. Hon NG
General Counsel, Binance

Hon Ng is Binance's General Counsel where he leads the company's legal department which spans all areas of law including regulatory, litigation, M&A and commercial matters. Mr. Ng works closely with the company's compliance, Government Affairs & Policy and business teams to ensure that the company is at the forefront of solving legal challenges in the blockchain and Web3 space as well as constructively engaging regulators around the world.

Prior to joining Binance, Hon Ng was Legal Director at Uber Technologies Inc and was responsible for legal affairs at Uber. Prior to Uber, Mr. Ng was an attorney with the leading international law firms, Latham & Watkins in Hong Kong, with White & Case in London and the Middle East, and with Herbert Smith Freehills in London. Mr. Ng is a committee member for the Hong Kong Football Association and the Law Society and attended the University of Sheffield and Osgoode Hall Law School (Toronto).