

Mr. Daniel FUNG, SBS, SC, KC, JP

Former Solicitor General of Hong Kong; Chairman, United Nations Peace and Development Foundation; President, International Law Association Hong Kong Chapter; and Specialist in China-United States relations

Mr. Fung comes from over 49 years practice at the bar with experience in both public and private sectors and in academia, was called to the English Bar in 1975 and the HK Bar in 1977.

Mr. Fung served for the maximum four terms totaling 20 years as National Delegate to the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (2003-2023), Mr. Fung is concurrently Vice-Chairman of Hong Kong Financial Services Development Council, Chairman Emeritus of the Peace & Development Foundation as an official partner of the United Nations Development Program, President of the International Law Association (HK Chapter), Chairman of International Bridges to Justice, Vice-President of the Academy of Experts, Founding Chair of Cambridge Global Conversations, Vice Chairman of the American Renewable Energy Institute, Senior Fellow and former Vice Chairman of the Salzburg Global Seminar and serves on the boards of respectively the East West Center, the Global Thinkers Forum, the American Bar Association UNDP Legal Resource Unit, the China Law Society and the China-US Exchange Foundation. Mr. Fung also serves as Chairman of Social Sciences Advisory Board of Lingnan University, Honorary Lecturer at HK University Department of Professional Legal Education, a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in the UK and an accredited expert to the World Economic Forum.

Mr. Fung has been honored by the United Nations for his contribution to China's attainment of the UN Millennium Development Goals and by the HK Government for his contribution to HK's constitutional development.

