

Mr. Nick CHAN, BBS, MH, JP

Chairman of 7th Belt and Road Conference Organising Committee, The Law Society of Hong Kong

Nick Chan, BBS, MH, JP, Hon Fellow (HKUST), is a solicitor and law-maker with a computer science background, a Partner at international law firm Squire Patton Boggs, the Director of the AALCO Hong Kong Regional Arbitration Centre, and an elected and serving Hong Kong Deputy to the National People's Congress of the People's Republic of China. With 48 countries as member states, AALCO serves as an important forum for member states to speak for two-thirds of the world's population in deliberating international law matters that are of common concern. The United Nations recognizes the role and influence of AALCO with a permanent observer seat. The Centre offers an advanced Online Disputes Resolution platform and technology to present great opportunities and tackle challenges. The combined GDPs of the AALCO member countries exceeded trillions of US Dollars. Over 90% of the AALCO member countries are active members of the Belt and Road Initiative.

