

Mrs. Elena BORISENKO

Deputy Chairperson of the Board of Management, Gazprombank JSC

As Deputy Chairman of the Management Board, Mrs. Borisenko oversees Gazprombank's legal and compliance functions, internal control and audit issues. She is responsible for legal matters at Gazprombank's group level. Elena Borisenko carries out overall coordination of Gazprombank international projects and activities and supervises work of foreign Representative offices of Gazprombank.

She is also Chairman of the Commission on Sustainable Development Goals (ESG) and Member of the Presidium, Association of Lawyers of Russia (ALRF).

Prior to joining Gazprombank, Mrs. Borisenko served as Deputy Minister of Justice of Russia (from June 2012 to July 2015).

Mrs. Borisenko was Advisor to the Minister of Justice of Russia and Plenipotentiary Representative of the Ministry of Justice of Russia at the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation (from March 2011 to June 2012).

Previously Mrs. Borisenko held various positions in private legal practice, corporate and commercial law.

Since 2013, Mrs. Borisenko is the head of the educational program "Financial Lawyer" and a professor of Constitutional and Administrative Law Department of St. Petersburg State University.

She is senior researcher at the Finance, Tax, and budget Department of The Institute of Legislation and Comparative Law under the Government of the Russian Federation; Mrs. Borisenko is part of Federal Service for Intellectual Property (Rospatent) Board on Intellectual property.

Graduated from St. Petersburg State University law school in 2000. Holds PhD in law degree.

