

Ankur Doshi
General Counsel, Oregon State Bar

Ankur Doshi is the General Counsel of the Oregon State Bar (OSB), and represents the OSB in all non-disciplinary matters. He provides legal advice to the OSB in matters of bar governance, regulation of lawyers, employment, policy development, and public records and meetings law. He also leads the regulatory team, provides ethics advice to all OSB members, and writes and speaks on ethics and mandatory abuse reporting issues for Continuing Legal Education programs and OSB publications. He acts as the Bar Liasion for the Legal Ethics Committee.

Before his current role with the OSB, Ankur was the Deputy General Counsel for TriMet, where he represented TriMet on labor and employment matters. He also was litigation corporate counsel at R.B. Pamplin Corporation, where he represented the corporation and its subsidiaries in judicial and administrative litigation. He served as chair for the Legal Ethics Committee in 2016 and as chair for the State Professional Responsibility Board in 2017.
