

Justin Yuen
Council Member, and Chair of Standing Committee on Standards & Development,
The Law Society of Hong Kong

Justin Yuen is a Council Member of the Law Society of Hong Kong (LSHK), as well as the chairman of the Standing Committee on Standards and Development and Trainee Solicitors Committee of LSHK.

Justin is a partner of Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department at Deacons. He is a qualified solicitor in Hong Kong, New South Wales (Australia) (non-practising) and England & Wales (non-practising). He also obtained the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area Lawyer's Licence. He has extensive experience in commercial litigation, international arbitration, construction related advisory and disputes resolution.

He is a member of the HKIAC Appointment Advisory Board and is appointed to the panel of arbitrators of South China International Arbitration Center (Hong Kong) and eBRAM International Online Dispute Resolution Centre. He is also a China-appointed attesting officer, member of Appeal Panel of the Building Rehabilitation Company Registration Scheme of Urban Renewal Authority, honorary legal adviser of Hong Kong Institute of Project Management, member of the Panel of the Board of Review (Inland Revenue Ordinance) and LSHK representative of the Costs Committee of the HKSAR Government, etc.

Justin has been continuously recognised by international legal rankings, including Legal 500 Asia Pacific, Chambers Greater China Region Guide and China Business Law Journal.

