

Ms. Liz Rosser

Executive Director, Operations and Resources, Solicitors Regulation Authority

Liz joined the Solicitors Regulation Authority as Executive Director in 2019. Since then, Liz has provided strategic leadership and management, including of all financial and staff resources to support the delivery of the strategic objectives and overall organisational performance. She also leads key operational areas including Authorisation of solicitors and law firms.

Liz leads the Operations and Resources Directorate including Finance and Procurement, HR, IT, Business Improvement, Information Security and Governance, Risk and Audit. Also in Operations: Authorisation, Business Support, Contact Centre, Client Protection, and the Ethics helpline.

Liz is a Chartered Accountant. She is a Non-Executive Director for Qualifications Wales, the independent organisation responsible for regulating general and vocational qualifications in Wales. She has previously held a senior role at the Quality Assurance Agency the UK's quality body for higher education.