

Mr. Christopher K.K. Yu
Vice-President, The Law Society of Hong Kong

Mr. Christopher Yu is one of the partners at Howse Williams, a leading independent law firm based in Hong Kong. He offers extensive expertise in corporate finance and regulatory affairs, providing a wide range of professional services. These services include assistance with initial public offerings (IPOs), facilitation of takeovers, mergers and acquisitions, management of trading suspensions and resumptions, and handling regulatory inquiries.

In addition, Mr. Yu possesses deep knowledge of legal issues related to funds, trusts, and the establishment of family offices. He also advises clients on asset management and strategies for wealth succession. With legal qualifications in both Hong Kong and the Greater Bay Area (GBA), Mr. Yu demonstrates strong international acumen and adaptable professional capabilities.

