

Ms. Ellyn S. Rosen

Regulation and Global Initiatives Counsel, American Bar Association Center for Professional Responsibility

Ellyn S. Rosen is the Regulation and Global Initiatives Counsel of the American Bar Association Center for Professional Responsibility, where she is responsible for the Center's global portfolio. She consults for the ABA Rule of Law Initiative and assists legal regulators in other countries in the development of lawyer rules of professional conduct and associated disciplinary procedures.

She was Counsel to the ABA Commission on Ethics 20/20 and advised the ABA Commission on the Future of Legal Services. She works with the ABA Standing Committee on International Trade in Legal Services. She liaises with the Conference of Chief Justices, National Organization of Bar Counsel, and the Association of Professional Responsibility Lawyers. She speaks frequently on international and U.S. bar association programs regarding legal ethics and professional regulation.

Prior to joining the ABA, she was a senior litigation counsel with the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission of the Supreme Court of Illinois. She is a member and Past-Chair of the International Bar Association's Bar Issues Commission Regulation Committee, on which she currently serves as Vice Chair (2025-2027). She served on the International Bar Association's Professional Ethics Committee (2009-2010). She is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.
