

Mr. Brook Greenberg, KC

President, Law Society of British Columbia

Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Brook Greenberg, KC has been a member of the Litigation Department of Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP since being called to the bar in 1998. His practice focuses on complex commercial, construction and forestry litigation. He has appeared before all levels of court including the Supreme Court of Canada. He has been the partner responsible for pro bono matters in Fasken's Vancouver office since 2004. He has taught civil procedure as an adjunct professor at the University of British Columbia from 2006 to the present.

First elected a Bencher for 2016, Brook is the President of the Law Society of British Columbia for 2025. He is Chair of the Executive Committee and a member of the Discipline Processes Task Force and Finance and Audit Committee.

Brook has been involved with the Law Students' Legal Advice Program since 1993, first as a student clinician, clinic head and executive member, and then as a supervising lawyer at various clinics. In 2012, Brook joined the founding board of directors of the Greater Vancouver Law Students' Legal Advice Society. Brook also acted as Secretary/Treasurer of the GVLAS in 2012 and 2013. He then served as President in 2014 and 2015, and as Past-President in 2016. Brook has remained a member of the board to the present.

In the community, Brook served from 2005 to 2012 on the board of directors of MOSAIC, a not-for-profit provider of settlement and support services for immigrants and refugees. He was Vice-President of MOSAIC in 2008, and President from 2009 to 2011.

