

Mr. Taimur Siddiqi

Manager, Evaluation & Impact, Victorian Legal Services Board + Commissioner

Taimur is an experienced impact measurement and evaluation professional, who has consulted to numerous public sector, corporate and not-for-profit organisations such as Energy Australia, the Australian Red Cross, and Victoria Legal Aid. He is passionate about providing an evidence base for organisations to maximise their impact and answer two key questions:

"Is what we are doing making a meaningful difference?" "How do we know it is?"

Taimur has extensive experience in developing meaningful theories of change and evaluation frameworks, conducting stakeholder consultations, and performing quantitative data and return on investment analyses, to produce program evaluations and impact reports with clear insights and practical recommendations.

He is currently the Manager, Evaluation & Impact at the Victorian Legal Services Board + Commissioner. He is a member of the You Matter Board and the Australian Evaluation Society Board's Pathways Committee, working to further the professionalisation of evaluation across Australia.
