Senior Partner – Boase Cohen & Collins

Vastly experienced and deeply knowledgeable, Colin is recognised as one of Hong Kong's foremost practitioners in the field of arbitration, finding solutions and achieving results in even the most complicated and demanding cases.

Prior to being admitted as a member of the newly formed Panel of Arbitrators of the Law Society of Hong Kong in 2017, he was made a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators in 2015. As well, he is an Accredited General Mediator with the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, the Law Society of Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited and the Lands Tribunal, where he mediates in Building Management Cases.

Colin's proficiency across a diverse range of practice areas – notably criminal proceedings, complex corporate crime, commercial litigation, securities regulatory issues and cross-border work – allows him to bring a unique perspective and dynamic approach to arbitration proceedings.

His strong academic background includes being an Honorary Lecturer in the Department of Professional Legal Education at the University of Hong Kong and external roles with the City University of Hong Kong and the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Official recognition of Colin's commitment to public service and pursuit of justice came in 2012 when he was awarded the Hong Kong Medal of Honour for his long-standing contribution to the Inland Revenue's Board of Review, having served as Deputy Chairman for nine years.
