

Ho Yan Hung – Curriculum Vitae

Qualifications:

Law:

Mater of Laws 2004 (University of London)

Postgraduate Certificate in Laws 1997 (University of Hong Kong)

Bachelor of Laws 1996 (The Manchester Metropolitan University)

Chinese Law – Postgraduate Diploma in Chinese Law August 2005 (Shenzhen University)

Professional qualifications:

Arbitration:

Fellow Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

Shipping:

Fellow Member of “The Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers”.

Construction:

Bachelor of Science in Estate Management 2001 (University of Reading)

Postgraduate Diploma in Construction Law and Arbitrations (2005) (HKU Space)

Construction Mediation (Stage 1) Accreditation Course by Hong Kong Construction Arbitration Centre 2011.

Advanced Certificate in Construction Studies (Management) 1999 by Construction Industry Training Authority.

Diploma in Building Services (Installations & Maintenance) 2003 by the Association of Chief Engineers & Hong Kong Productivity Council.

Insurance:

Fellow Member of the Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance. (2006)

Lecturing:

Part-time lecturer of a Bachelor of Law course run by Nottingham Law School & Open University of Hong Kong, teaching Company & Commercial Law between 2001 – 2005.

Part-time lecturer at Hong Kong Management Association teaching Business Law from 2000 to present.

1999 – Trainee solicitor with Chan, Ng & Lam handling litigation and construction arbitration cases.

2000 – 2001 Working as Associate Solicitor with Hampton, Winter & Glynn handling arbitration and litigation cases.

2001- 2005 Working with Steamship Mutual Management (HK) Ltd handling arbitration and litigation cases.

2006 – present Operating James Ho & Co. as sole proprietor handling arbitration and litigation cases.