

The Law Society of Hong Kong's Statement on the Tai Po Tragic Fire

The Law Society of Hong Kong expresses our deepest condolences and profound concern following the tragic fire in Tai Po, which has claimed lives and caused immense suffering within the community.

We are deeply saddened by this heartbreaking incident. Our heartfelt sympathies go to all who have lost loved ones, and we stand in solidarity with the families and communities affected during this difficult time.

We also recognise the exceptional courage and dedication of the firefighters who responded to the tragedy. We mourn the loss of a firefighter who gave his life in the line of duty. Their commitment and professionalism exemplify the highest standards of public service.

The Law Society of Hong Kong remains committed to supporting our members and the wider community as we confront this tragedy together. In this time of collective grief, we stand united with all those impacted.
