PRACTICE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Practice Management Committee is dedicated to serving members in best-practice endeavours, which include starting up a legal practice and running it, increasing profitability of law firms, implementing good practice systems, managing risks in practice, enhancing the services given by a practice to its clients, improving the morale and motivation of its staff, and financial and information management. It works to help law practices to achieve practice management excellence, including formulating guidelines and practice manuals, organizing training programmes seminars and conferences on practice management.

The Committee had formed four small groups with special focus on different aspects of management including Client Management and Care, Education, Exchange of Information and Support, Emerging Issues.

During the year, the Committee deliberated on a number of management topics of special interest to members including unclaimed clients money, electronic filing of active files, networking on the internet, cessation agent and storage of files. The Committee had undertaken the preparation of forms and checklists to facilitate law firm practices.

The Committee organizes regular lunch meetings with partners of small to medium sized firms and sole proprietors to hear their needs on law firm management.

In September and November, the Committee organized two accounting courses for law firm accountants. More courses for law firm staff will be held in the coming years.

PRO BONO COMMITTEE

The Pro Bono Committee was set up in January. It works to review the pro bono work undertaken by the profession, promote public awareness of the pro bono services undertaken by the profession and encourage participation by the profession in pro bono work. During the year, the Committee reviewed various pro bono schemes and projects in which members participated in including Duty Lawyer Scheme and Property Management Advisory Centre.

In April, the Committee conducted a survey on all law firms to ascertain the pro bono work undertaken by members, what projects members and firms were interested in and what support members and firms would require from the Law Society.

Duty Lawyer Scheme ("DLS")

The Committee reviewed work assignments to solicitors acting as duty lawyers. In December, a meeting with representatives of the Home Affairs Bureau was held to discuss the issues of the Free Legal Advice Scheme under DLS and proposals were put forward to promote public awareness and encourage participation by members.

Project on Property Management Advisory Centre

The Committee took over the running of the project on Property Management Advisory Centre (formerly known as Building Management Resources Centre) and reviewed work assignments to solicitors. The Committee also worked towards providing standard courses for solicitors in the panels which will be implemented in 2011.

The Committee also assisted in coordinating pro bono services to those needed, including setting up the Manila Helpline immediately after the tragic incident in August, and forming panels of volunteers to the SME Advisory Centre of the Hong Kong Trade and Development Council.

By the end of 2010, the Committee worked jointly with the Pro Bono and Community Work Recognition Committee for the first Pro Bono Exhibition to be launched in 2011.

PRO BONO AND COMMUNITY WORK RECOGNITION COMMITTEE

The Pro Bono and Community Work Recognition Committee was set up in January as part of the initiative of the Law Society to promote the carrying out of pro bono and community work by its members. It has established the rules of a programme to recognize and honour individual solicitors and firms who/which have made contribution to pro bono and community work. It also liaises and works with the Government and other bodies in relation to the recognition of pro bono and community work by members.

The Committee launched the first recognition programme on behalf of the Law Society in October 2010 to cover the award period which ended 30 June 2010. It invited applications and nominations for the three types of awards, namely Individual Awards, Pro Bono Distinguished Service Award and Pro Bono Law Firm Award. In aggregate over 100 entries had been received by 31 December. The Judging Panel which decided the winners of Pro Bono Distinguished Service Award and Pro Bono Law Firm Award was made up of Dr. the Honourable Andrew LI Kwok Nang, CBE, GBM, JP; The Honourable Elsie LEUNG Oi Sze, GBM, JP; Mr. Roderick WOO Bun, JP; Ms. Christine FANG Meng Sang, BBS, Mr. Huen WONG, JP and Ms. Angela LEE Wai Yin, BBS, JP. Friday Lunches

Members had the opportunity to meet socially through informal lunch gatherings at The Law Society's Clubhouse and also meet with members of Council, the Standing Committee on Member Services and the YSG. 10 lunches were organized.

Welcome Drinks to New Members

In October, YSG organized a drinks gathering to welcome trainee solicitors. Held at The Law Society's Clubhouse, overwhelming responses from over 140 participants were received. President Huen Wong, who was joined by members of the Council, Standing Committee on Member Services and the YSG, warmly welcomed the trainee solicitors. After that, the floor was open for free mingling in a relaxed atmosphere with music and cocktails.

Community Activities

Lantau “Say No to Drugs” Project

With the aim of raising awareness of drug abuse amongst youths in the community, YSG, the Hong Kong Police Force (Lantau District), the Lantau District Junior Police Call and the Law Association of the University of Hong Kong participated in an “anti-drug video competition”, exhibition tours, school talks and training camp. Vice President Junius Ho and Cecilia Wong, the then Chairlady of the YSG attended the presentation ceremony in February. YSG was especially appreciated for its substantial involvement and contribution to the competition.

Child Development Fund Project “Growing Partners II”

YSG was a support body of the Child Development Fund Project “Growing Partners II” (‘結伴再成長’兒童發展基金計劃) organized by The Boys’ & Girls’ Clubs Association of Hong Kong. The programme sought to encourage participating children to develop positive attitudes and mindset, personal resilience and social skills through formulating and implementing personal development plans with these children under the guidance of designated mentors and social workers.
