

Allen Ting LLB, BBA, MBA, MSc, CFE, CIPM, CIPT, CIPP/A, FIP, FCMA, FIPA

Senior Legal Counsel, Huawei

Allen possesses over two decades of regulatory experience in Hong Kong, having served first as a Senior Investigator with the Independent Commission Against Corruption, and then as a Chief Personal Data Officer with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data. Currently, he is a Senior Legal Counsel with the Consumer Legal Affairs Department of Huawei.

Founded in 1987, Huawei is a leading global provider of information and communications technology infrastructure and smart devices. It is a Fortune Global 500 company (ranked 44 in 2021) with over 197,000 staff in more than 170 countries. Its revenue for 2020 totaled RMB 891.4 billion (USD 136.7 billion).

Allen is a frequent speaker on the subject of data privacy and cybersecurity. He holds two bachelor's degrees, two master's degrees and is a fellow member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals, United States (IAPP), Institute of Certified Management Accountants, Australia (ICMA), and Institute of Public Accountants, Australia. He also holds/held the following pro-bono positions:

- (a) Chairman of the Committee of Legal Compliance, Hong Kong Branch, ICMA
- (b) Faculty Member, IAPP
- (c) Board Member, Hong Kong Chapter, Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, United States (ACFE)
- (d) Featured Speaker, School of Business, Hong Kong Baptist University
- (e) Chairperson, Constitution & By-law Committee, Lions Club Hong Kong IFC
- (f) Co-Chair, IAPP Shenzhen KnowledgeNet Chapter (2017 - 2019)
- (g) President, ACFE Hong Kong Chapter (2012 - 2014)