CIRCULAR 25-634 (PA)

25 September 2025

25-634 (PA)LEGAL VISITS AGREED ARRANGEMENT

1. This Circular sets out the agreed arrangements between The Law Society and the various law enforcement agencies on legal visits to detained persons.

Click here for the agreed arrangements

2. Members are invited to note in particular the agreed arrangements between The Law Society and the Correctional Services Department including the requirements on the letterhead, content, signatory and mode of presentation of an authorisation letter for conducting legal visit. Further, it should be noted that a separate notification letter for each detainee and for each visit is required and only those persons named in the authorization letter are allowed to conduct the legal visit.
3. In addition, members are reminded of the following for the purpose of legal visits:-
 - (a) Principals of solicitors' firms should consider whether any family or personal relationship which
 - (i) they, and/or
 - (ii) a member of their staff

may have with a detained client affect them and/or their staff to properly and impartially advise the client. Firms must exercise great caution when they are to send their solicitors, trainee solicitors or authorised solicitors' clerks to visit a client who is known to be a relative or friend of any of them. Any conflicts of interests or possible abuses of arrangements of legal visits arising from the above MUST be avoided. A solicitor must be able to give impartial and frank advice to his client. He must consider whether any family or other personal or emotional relationships which he has may inhibit his ability to advise his client properly and impartially. See Principle 3.01 and the commentary (2) to Principle 7.02 of the Solicitors' Guide to Professional Conduct.

The above applies mutatis mutandis to interpreters a solicitors' firm may engage and send for legal visits. Members should try their best to choose and to engage interpreters who are able to render both competent and independent interpretation at legal visits.

- (b) All applications for legal visits will be closely scrutinized by the law enforcement agencies. Amendments to a formal request made by any person, other than the solicitor signing the authorisation letter or the principal(s) of the solicitors' firm, will not be accepted. Refusals for legal visits on such ground, as well as amendments to applications of this nature, will be referred to The Law Society for investigation. Inappropriate applications will be investigated as matters of professional misconduct.
 - (c) When trainee solicitor contracts expire, trainee solicitors are not allowed to conduct legal visits, until they are issued with the Practising Certificates, or unless their names are on the current Authorised Solicitors' Clerks List. If they wish to be continually able to conduct legal visits, trainee solicitors should apply to be placed on the Authorised Solicitors' Clerks List well before the expiration of their trainee solicitor contracts.
 - (d) Overseas lawyers who do not fall within the exception of Section 50B(2) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance Cap.159 and who are employed by law firms as paralegals are not allowed to conduct legal visits, unless their names are on the current Authorised Solicitors' Clerks List.
- 4. The Law Society is not in any position to grant any "special permission" for any person to visit clients in places of detention. The authority to permit entry of any person into places of detention is vested in the Correctional Services Department, the Customs and Excise Department, the Immigration Department, the Police and the ICAC, as the case may be.
 - 5. For the purpose of this circular, legal visits include ID Parade.
 - 6. For video legal visits taking place at the CSD's High Court Cell Holding Unit,
 - (a) Solicitors;
 - (b) Counsel in the presence of representative(s) of law firmscould attend.
 - 7. For matters relating to the Authorised Solicitors' Clerks Scheme, see Circular 17-839 \(COM\).
 - 8. Circular 17-838(PA) and the "Arrangement for Legal Visits" referred therein and Circular 24-674(PA) are superseded.

CIRCULAR 25-644 (SD)

25 September 2025

25-644 (SD) THE MAINLAND UNIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES 2025 – LECTURER RECRUITMENT CAMPAIGN FOR THE LAW COURSE FOR RENMIN UNIVERSITY OF CHINA

1. From 2019 to 2024, a law course titled “An Introduction to Legal Services and Risk Management for Cross-border Transactions”, focusing on legal practice under the common law system, cross-border legal services, and specialised areas of Hong Kong legal practice, was conducted annually for law students at Peking University Law School (“PKU”).
2. The successful experience with PKU laid down the foundation for the collaboration initiatives with other top-tier Mainland universities, including the East China University of Political Science and Law (“ECUPL”), Renmin University of China Law School (“RUC”), and China University of Political Science and Law (“CUPL”). The debut lecture series for these three universities, launched in November 2024 and May 2025 respectively, were well received by students, guest audiences, and our members who served as volunteer lecturers.
3. With the establishment of the Common Law Centre (“CLC”) in early 2025, the efforts to provide law courses under the Mainland University Lecture Series for the Mainland universities and institutions are further stepped up. The CLC is proactively exploring collaboration opportunities with other Mainland universities and institutions and is conducting the “Mainland University Lecture Series” on a regular basis.
4. A re-run of the law course titled “International Commercial Arbitration Practice” for RUC is scheduled for 8 to 29 November 2025. The course will be held physically on Saturdays and Sundays at RUC’s Beijing campus in November 2025. The lectures are credit-bearing and will be delivered in English.
5. We are now recruiting enthusiastic volunteer lecturers to deliver lectures for RUC. The tentative outline of the Mainland University Lecture Series for RUC and the reply slip are set out in Annexure 1 and Annexure 2 respectively.
6. Interested members are invited to complete and return the reply slip to the Academy of Law by email at clc@hklawacademy.org on or before Monday, 29 September 2025.
