20 February 2026

26-119 (SD) LAUNCH OF THE ANTI-MONEY
LAUNDERING/COUNTER TERRORIST FINANCING
COMPLIANCE SELF-ASSESSMENT FORM
(Repeat Circular)

1. As the designated regulatory body under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance (Cap. 615), the Law Society is committed to supporting its members in managing money laundering and terrorist-financing risks effectively. Alongside this commitment, the Law Society has a statutory duty to oversee members' compliance with the statutory Client Due Diligence ("CDD") and record-keeping requirements. To fulfil these responsibilities, the Law Society is enhancing its supervisory framework through a proportionate, risk-based approach.
2. This work is also being undertaken to address the recommendations set out by the Financial Action Task Force ("FATF") in the Mutual Evaluation Report of Hong Kong \(2019\), which called on the Law Society to establish a robust, risk-based AML supervision of legal professionals.

Mandatory Anti-Money Laundering/Counter-Terrorist Financing Compliance Self-Assessment Form ("AML/CTF Form")

3. As part of ongoing efforts to meet FATF recommendations and enhance sector-wide compliance, the Law Society is rolling out the AML/CTF Form. Completion and online submission of this form is mandatory for all law firms in Hong Kong. This requirement is based on a resolution by the Council of the Law Society. As the designated regulatory AML supervisory body, the Law Society has a statutory duty to oversee members' compliance with the AML/CTF obligations.
4. Completion of the AML/CTF Form is an important part of meeting the Law Society's professional responsibilities, and non-compliance may be treated as professional misconduct.

5. The AML/CTF Form is designed to guide firms in reviewing their own compliance with the AML/CTF requirements and to help identify areas where additional guidance or training may be useful. It will also assist the Law Society in understanding where support is most needed and in developing practical guidance and other resources for members.
6. The goal is to make compliance easier and more collaborative, to establish a shared understanding of AML/CTF requirements across the sector, support firms in strengthening their compliance frameworks, and provide an opportunity to raise questions.

How to Complete the AML/CTF Form?

- (a) Online access to the Form: The link for online submission of the AML/CTF Form is available on the Law Society's AML website under the "AML/CTF Compliance Self-Assessment Form" tab. Please click here to access the link to the AML/CTF Form. On the AML website, members will also find a comprehensive Frequently Asked Questions document to assist with completing the form, as well as a sample AML/CTF Form for reference purposes only. Please note that all responses to the AML/CTF Form must be submitted online using the link provided on the AML website; submissions by email or post will not be accepted.
- (b) Submission Deadline: 2 March 2026
- (c) Submission Method: Online only (no email or postal submissions)
- (d) Relevant Period of Self-Assessment: 1 January 2025 – 31 December 2025
- (e) Complete All Required Fields: Enter your information accurately.
- (f) Submission of the AML/CTF Form: Click the "Submit" button at the end of the form. The Law Society will receive your submission automatically, and you will receive a confirmation email.
- (g) Record Keeping: Refer to the front page of the AML/CTF Form for instructions on saving your submission and making amendments if needed.

Training and Engagement Opportunities:

7. To support firms in meeting their AML/CTF obligations, the Law Society will deliver targeted training sessions starting in 2026, both on-site and through webinars or workshops. These sessions will focus on the following areas:
 - Scope of compliance and CDD requirements
 - Red flags and risk indicators
 - Suspicious transaction reporting
 - Law Society's compliance tools.

I. Applications for the 2026 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination

1. The Information Package for the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination (“the Examination”) in 2026 (“2026 Information Package”) and the Application Form (“Application Form”) are available on the website of the Law Society at www.hklawsoc.org.hk.
2. Kindly note that for the 2026 Examination, applicants may elect to submit the online Application Form or paper-based Application Form. In either case, applicants are required to submit all supporting documents and information and effect payment of an application fee of HK$6,600 by Friday, 20 March 2026.
3. The 2026 Information Package has been updated with the following major amendments:

(i) Part I – Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination

Section C – Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination Information

(Both online Application Form and paper-based Application Form are available at the Law Society’s website)

If an applicant wishes to submit his application via online Application Form, he will pay the application fee of HK$6,600 via online payment options including but not limited to credit/debit cards (VISA, Mastercard, Union Pay), Faster Payment System (FPS), Alipay, WeChat Pay. Details of online payment options and procedures will be provided during the online submission process.

Alternatively, if an applicant wishes to submit the paper-based Application Form, he will have to pay the requisite fee by cheque, bank draft or cashier order payable to “The Law Society of Hong Kong” as online payment options are not available for submission of paper-based Application Form.

As the Application Form contains a statutory declaration pursuant to the provisions of the Oaths and Declarations Ordinance (Cap.11, Laws of Hong Kong) (i.e. Item 30 in the Application Form), an applicant is strongly reminded to return the original Application Form with the duly executed statutory declaration together with all supporting documents to the Department of Standards and Development on or before 20 March 2026 for processing the application no matter an applicant is submitting the online Application Form or paper-based Application Form.

Mode of examination for 2026 Examination

The written Heads of the 2026 Examination (i.e. Heads I, II, III, IV and VI) (collectively, “Written Heads” and each, a “Written Head”) will be conducted in a computer-based format. An applicant is required to bring his own laptop computer to the Examination venue to take the Examination. An applicant has to pre-install the prescribed computer software for the computer-based Examination (“Lockdown Browser”) in his laptop computer prior to the Examination. Details of the installation and operation of the Lockdown Browser (including the taking of a practice examination) will be provided to candidates in due course.

A review of the Law Society’s decision under section 9 of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules (“OLQE Rules”)

The application fee of HK$3,000 can be made by cheque, bank draft or cashier order payable to “The Law Society of Hong Kong” or by online payment options, details of which will be provided to applicants in due course.

Procedure for registration to sit the 2026 Examination

Candidates can pay the registration fee in accordance with the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) (Fees) Rules by cheque, bank draft or cashier order payable to “The Law Society of Hong Kong” or by online payment options, details of which will be provided to candidates in due course.

Withdrawal from sitting the Examination

If an applicant is unable to take the Examination after he has been issued a Section 3(2) Certificate issued under the OLQE Rules (“Section 3(2) Certificate”) but before he has registered his intention to sit the Examination, he may apply by letter, before the expiry of the Section 3(2) Certificate, for an extension of its validity period to enable him to take the next sitting. The application fee of HK$1,500 can be paid by cheque, bank draft or cashier order payable to “The Law Society of Hong Kong” or by online payment options, details of which will be provided to applicants in due course.

Computers/calculators, mobile phones etc.

As the Written Heads of the Examination (i.e. Heads I, II, III, IV, VI) will be conducted in a computer-based format, an applicant is required to bring his own laptop computer to the Examination venue to take the Examination. He has to pre-install the Lockdown Browser in his laptop computer prior to the Examination. Details of the installation and operation of the Lockdown Browser will be provided to candidates in due course. He may also bring and use a silent and non-programmable calculator in the Examination. He is strongly advised not to bring any electronic/communication devices other than the laptop computer required for him to take the Examination (e.g. tablet, i-watches, smart watches, PDA, mobile phones, pagers, ear phones, ear pieces) into the Examination. If an applicant has brought along any of such devices, he must turn it off (including the alarm function) and put it under his seat in a position clearly visible to the invigilators. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

Candidates with incapacities or disabilities

Any candidate who is incapable to take computer-based Examination or suffers from a disability necessitating special requirements to sit the computer-based Examination should make an application in writing addressed to the Director of Standards and Development not less than six weeks prior to the commencement date of the Examination (on or before 11 September 2026):

- advising the nature of the incapacity or disability and its effect in relation to ability to sit the computer-based Examination;
- including a medical report/certificate in support; and
- specifying the special requirements requested.

The application will be considered by the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination Committee.

A candidate is required to provide reason(s) for any application made after the deadline of 11 September 2026. The Law Society reserves the right not to consider any late applications.

Application for review of applicant's script

The application fee of HK$3,000 per Head for a review of the answer(s)/script(s) by the Chief Examiners can be paid by cheque, bank draft or cashier order payable to "The Law Society of Hong Kong" or by online payment options, details of which will be provided to applicants in due course.

Section F-Guidelines for Exemption from sitting all or parts of the Examination

Meaning of "experience in the practice of law"

If an applicant's pre-admission experience such as in-house experience has been recognised by the regulatory authority as equivalent to the completion of statutory training period and as satisfying the admission criteria in the applicant's jurisdiction of admission, the applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Law Society that such pre-admission experience is comparable to the training required for admission and/or is relevant experience in the practice of law and that documentary evidence of attaining relevant experience in addition to the recognition of such pre-admission experience by the regulatory authority of the applicant's jurisdiction of admission must be provided.

Section G-Application Form

In view of the introduction of online Application Form and online payment options, the Personal Information Collection Statement in the Application Form has been revised. Consequential amendments to Items 29 and 30 of the Application Form have also been revised.

II. Enquiries

All enquiries relating to the applications for the 2026 Examination may be made by email to OLQEAppln@hklawsoc.org.hk or by call to +852 2805 9103.

26-123 (EA) KOREAN INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME 2026 (Repeat Circular)

1. Building on the success of the internship programmes jointly organised with the Korean Bar Association and the Korean Ministry of Justice since 2014, the Law Society will continue the two-week Korean Internship Programme in 2026.

Inbound Programme (Korean interns to Hong Kong)

2. This year's inbound programme will take place from 3 to 14 August 2026. The Law Society calls on support from our members' law firms and legal unit of corporations to host the selected English-speaking Korean interns. The interns will ensure their own compliance with the Hong Kong training visa requirements, with the Law Society as the sponsoring company. They will also bear all travel and accommodation expenses related to their participation in the programme. No remuneration is payable for the internship.
3. While the Law Society will tentatively organise orientation and networking activities on the first day (3 August 2026) and last day (14 August 2026), participating law firms and corporations are expected to provide their own training programmes for the interns during their stay, including but not limited to practical work assignments with the law firm/corporation, visit(s), meeting(s), professional exchanges, networking activities, and/or other meaningful exposure to Hong Kong's legal profession.
4. For members who are interested in offering internship opportunity to the Korean interns in Hong Kong, please complete and return Reply Slip A to international@hklawsoc.org.hk on or before 2 March 2026.

Outbound Programme (Hong Kong interns to Korea)

5. The Law Society is also inviting applications from young members, preferably with less than five years of post-qualification experience, to undertake two-week training in Korea. The outbound programme is tentatively scheduled to take place from 12 to 23 October 2026. The estimated number of interns is three to six, subject to responses from Korean law firms.
6. Upon successful application, the Law Society will provide travel subsidies to the selected young members. They must ensure their own compliance with the visa requirements, and no remuneration is payable for the internship. More details will be provided upon selection.

CIRCULAR 25-124 (MS)

20 February 2026

26-124 (MS) YOUNG SOLICITORS' GROUP

Cross-Professional Dialogue Series 2: Advantages of Arbitration in Engineering Friday, 27 February 2026

1. The Young Solicitors' Group ("YSG") is pleased to jointly organise the seminar "Cross-Professional Dialogue Series 2: Advantages of Arbitration in Engineering" with by the following institutions:
 - The Chartered Institute of Plumbing & Heating Engineering – Hong Kong Branch, Youth Member Committee (CIPHE – HKB, YMC)
 - The Hong Kong Bar Association – Young Barristers' Committee (HKBA – YBC)
 - The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers – Young Members Committee (HKIE – YMC).
2. In Hong Kong, the Arbitration Ordinance, effective since June 2011, provides a framework for the flexible and professional resolution of disputes that might otherwise escalate to litigation. Arbitration clauses are commonly included in construction contracts, but even if absent, parties can agree to arbitration post-dispute. This flexibility is vital for addressing the complexities inherent in construction disputes. During the event, we will conduct specific case analyses to deepen our understanding of the practical implications of arbitration in resolving disputes within the construction industry.

(Repeat Circular)

1. Following the President’s Letters dated 8 January and 29 January 2026, and Circular 26-1, we would like to take this opportunity to gently remind members that the Law Society has launched an online AML/CTF Form. The form is to be completed by all Hong Kong and foreign-registered law firms as part of the Law Society’s statutory responsibility to oversee compliance with AML/CTF requirements.
2. As outlined in Circular 26-1, completion of the AML/CTF Form is a key professional and regulatory requirement, forming an essential part of the Law Society’s AML/CTF supervisory framework. Recognising its importance to all firms, the Small and Medium Firms Committee and Anti-Money Laundering Committee are pleased to co-organise another briefing session, offering helpful guidance and support.
3. To assist members through this process, AML/CTF seminars were previously held on 14 January 2026 and 6 February 2026, both of which attracted strong interest. Building on this positive response, the upcoming session will offer a further opportunity for members to engage with the Law Society and enhance their understanding of the latest AML/CTF Form completion requirement.
4. The additional session will provide helpful background on AML supervision in the legal sector, along with practical guidance on completing and submitting the AML/CTF Form.
5. Details of the session will be as follows:

26-126 (MS) RECREATION AND SPORTS PROGRAMME

THE LAW SOCIETY OF HONG KONG

THE RECREATION AND SPORTS PROGRAMME 2026

RSC TEAMS & GROUPS

The R&S Programme is an annual programme under the Recreation and Sports Committee ("RSC"). It aims at encouraging members to lead a balanced life within demanding work routines and to network with their fellow members and other professional bodies by taking part in various recreational and sporting activities.

Currently, the RSC has 14 sports teams and 9 recreational groups which provide year-round training sessions, classes and activities. There are also mega annual events such as the Recreation and Sports Night, Members and Family Fun Day and Swimming Gala that are all dynamic and fun-filled. RSC will also send member representatives to take part in various joint professional competitions and invitational events held in other jurisdictions.

MEGA ANNUAL EVENTS

Registration:
The annual fee for joining the 2026 Programme is HK$100, and is waived for student members.

Enquiries From Solicitors On Wills, Codicils And Other Testamentary Dispositions

An enquiry has been received from solicitors as to the existence of a will, codicil or other testamentary disposition made by the following deceased persons. If you are holding the original or a copy of any of these documents, you are requested to contact the enquiring firm directly within 14 working days.

Members are reminded to exercise due care when responding to enquiries in order to avoid any breach of the duty of confidentiality which they owe to the testator or the testator's personal representatives.
