3. Procedure

- (a) Trainee Solicitors who wish to take advantage of the above arrangements should first obtain the consent of their principal before making enquiries about the availability of secondment places.
- (b) An application should then be submitted directly to the contact person of the relevant government department.
- (c) Where agreement has been reached with the government department on the period of secondment and the proposed supervision arrangements, the principal and the trainee solicitor should notify the Law Society of the intended secondment, pursuant to Rule 9(3) of the Trainee Solicitors Rules, by way of a letter enclosing a copy of the agreement within 14 days of the date of the agreement.

A sample of the agreement can be downloaded by clicking here.

4. Note

- (a) In considering whether a secondment is appropriate, trainee solicitors and principals should pay due regard to the training details offered by the relevant government department, in particular whether the secondment provides training and experience comparable to that offered by a solicitors' firm in the relevant practice area.
- (b) Trainee solicitors and principals should also consider whether the secondment would provide sufficient training and experience where the trainee solicitor intends to rely on the secondment solely as one of the three basic legal topics for the purpose of admission.

(c) Reference may be made to the Training Checklist for Trainee Solicitors published on the Law Society's website (www.hklawsoc.org.hk), which sets out the basic types of practical training that a trainee solicitor is expected to undergo prior to qualification.

REGULATORY TRENDS, DISPUTE RESOLUTION, AND DIGITAL PRACTICE

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE
FRIDAY, 12 JUNE 2026
(REPEAT CIRCULAR)

1. As the virtual asset and digital finance landscape evolves rapidly, cryptocurrency and its associated regulatory frameworks have shifted from niche interests into foundational pillars. Integrating these into practice management is no longer just about future-proofing. It is now a professional imperative.
2. Legal practitioners are increasingly required to navigate the legal and regulatory complexities arising from the proliferation of digital assets and the adoption of decentralised technologies across diverse industries. For law firm leadership, "crypto-literacy" has become a critical factor of the firm's risk management standing and its strategic competitiveness.

3. The Practice Management Committee (“PMC”) is organising a seminar on digital asset, introducing three pillars of modern digital practice: Governance (VASP/Stablecoin licensing), Growth (RWA tokenization) and Resolution (Cryptocurrency disputes). Speakers with relevant legal expertise will provide a practical guide for lawyers transitioning into the virtual asset space, and will share insights into the challenges and opportunities faced by Hong Kong lawyers in entering these markets.

Date:	Friday, 12 June 2026
