Outcome related fee structures for arbitration (ORFSA) – a brand new concept to the Hong Kong arbitration industry – adds to the variety of arbitration funding options that Hong Kong offers to suit the evolving needs of arbitration users. Implemented in December 2022, the newly minted ORFSA regime unlocks the possibility for arbitration parties to negotiate flexible funding arrangements with their legal representatives. Experienced arbitration and legal practitioners, funding and insurance experts, will share insights on how arbitration funding options can create winning solutions for parties, so that they may make the best informed choice amongst the various funding options now available in Hong Kong.
